VARIETIES THEATRE.—Were it not for the interest which the spirit and versatility of Miss Harriette Irving imparts to the leading performances at this theatre, the non-appearance of Lawrence Barret might be in the estimation of many habitues, little short of calamitous.

To-night Miss Irving will give one of her most congenial characters, Lady Gay Spanker, in London Assurance.

Mr. Barrett's arrival, or the precise time or manner of his expected arrival, is unknown in any way specified.

ST. CHARLES THEATRE.—The Police Spy has proved here one of the most successful dramatic creations of the season, and Mr. Eddy's Jacques is perhaps the most powerful and finished of his personations.

The same drama is to be repeated to-night. There will be the usual farce, and also an allegorical tableau in honor of the 22d.

PORK, BEEF, MEAT, HAMS, FLOUR, CIDER, ALE, BUTTER, &c.—The attention of the trade is called to a large stock of Western produce and provisions for sale by J. H. Vanborn, corner Magazine and Poydras street.

CHILDREN'S FESTIVAL.—We are reminded by a public ticket of invitation of a Children's Festival, to take place to-day, Washington's birthanniversary, at the Orleans Theatre. The programme comprises a number of songs, recitations, tableaux, and addresses by Gov. Hahn and Major B. R. Pumiley.

THE ACADEMY'S MID-DAY ENTERTAINMENT. —Two first rate performances are provided for the holiday in commemoration of him who was "first in war, first in peace, and first in the hearts of his countrymen." The noon performance will be especially appreciated by the family parties who always frequent the Matinées, and will no doubt be carefully cosseted by the manageress of the Academy. The Mammoth troupe has always been a favorite of the ladies and children at noon-day exhibitions, and now, after a recess of six weeks, they are preparing to present their juvenile and lady patronage with an entertainment that will be irresistibly attractive.

WEEK OF THE EMPIRE CITY.—We learn by the arrival in the river yesterday afternoon of the United States gunboat Albatross, that the U. S. steamship Empire City, from New York for this port, was wrecked on the Isle aux Chevreuils Rouf. The Albatross had on board the U. S. troops, the passengers and crew of the Empire City, and is now on her way up the River; there were no lives lost.

THE SCHOONER JANE DOLAN NOT LOST.—Mr. F. Clavel, 77 Magazine street, contradicts the published reports of the loss of this schooner off the bar of Matamoras, saying he has positive information of her safe arrival, off the Rio Grande, off the bar of the Rio Grande.

Gold in New York on the 16th 203 at the Close—Cotton 80 and 82.

[By the N. O. Bee.]

Pegasus, February 21, 1:30 P. M.—The Laurel Hill passed down at 11 P. M., New York dates of the 16th.

New York, February 16—Gold opened at and closed at 203. Cotton 80@82.

New York, February 16—The Herald's Fort correspondent says Gen. Terry and Admiral Porter have again destroyed the rifle-pits of the rebels defending the city of Wilmington, for the purpose of making a further advance in force.

Last Saturday morning the national troops were found in line of battle above Fort Fisher, stretching across the Peninsula from the ocean to Cape Fear river. Gen. Ames's division of white soldiers forming the right, and Gen. Paine's colored division the left. A simultaneous advance was made on the two prongs, and the rebels were driven from their line into their main works, and were forced to yield a few acres of ground in the direction of Wilmington, while Paine's men held all night. They also lost about 100 prisoners.

Admiral Porter co-operated with his fleet, both on the river and the ocean. His gunboats moved up Fear river, and assisted the troops, and subjecting the rebel Fort Anderson to a most vigorous shelling, which was very feebly responded to.

New York, February 15—Orangeburg has been captured by General Sherman. It is a beautiful village of about [illegible] inhabitants, and has been a retreat of refugees from Charleston. It was largely engaged in the manufacture of salt up before the war.

Philadelphia, February 15—At the Mar[illegible] sale of 1200 bales of cotton there to-day the price obtained was [illegible] to 84c per lb.

Washington, February 15—The Board of officers to investigate the cause of the magazine explosion at Fort Fisher report that it was the result of carelessness on the part of some one unknown.

New York, February 16—The Tribune's Kanawha correspondent says the effect of the battle of Shumenawky has been to cause Cox's to send pressing aid to Sherman, and Hood has been molested in the rear of Dalton. Jeff. Davis has been mulcted in the sum of three million pounds sterling, but the Emperor has refused to satisfy this settlement, so it looks as if nothing had been gained after all.

Major General Ord has been assigned to the permanent command of the Department of Virginia. In a general order issued by the new rebel Commander-in-chief, it is admitted that the discipline and efficiency of the army has been greatly impaired by the custom of the men in transferring themselves to different branches of the service, or in other words deserting from heavy to light duty. So completely has all trace of these transferred men been lost that Lee is compelled to announce an amnesty to all who voluntarily return to duty to their proper branch of the service.

New York, Feb. 16.—The Herald's Washington special says a special messenger, with dispatches who left Sherman's army ten miles from Branchville, arrived here to-night. When he left Gen. Sherman was easily overcoming all obstacles in his way. This information come to the Arago by a special dispatch boat from Morris Island as she was passing Charleston harbor. A vigorous cannonading was going on but its character was not ascertained.

New York, Feb 16—The Herald's Washington special says that Richmond papers of the 15th announce that all communication with the South is broken by Sherman's operations on the Charleston and Wilmington railroads.

[Special to the N. O. Bee.]

APPEAL FROM THE GOVERNOR OF SOUTH CAROLINA TO THE PEOPLE TO TAKE UP ARMS—UNION SENTIMENT MANIFESTED IN GEORGIA—PEACE MEETINGS HELD—THE MILITARY CAPTURE OF [illegible] AND THE NEGRO QUESTION AT RICHMOND.

New York, Feb. 16—The Government of South Carolina has issued a [illegible] appeal to the people, and notified all able to bear arms that they must at once join the army for duty service or leave the State. The latter alternative Governor Magrath will probably take gold care that they shall not have the privilege of subscribing. Even Orangeburg is not to be exempted.

The Herald's Savannah correspondent says that, notwithstanding all rebel saying to the contrary, Union sentiment throughout Georgia is very strong. Meetings have been held in at least nineteen counties, at which resolutions in favor of closing the war and returning to the Union were adopted, and these are said to express the almost unanimous feeling of the people of the Southwest as well as other parts of the State. At Augusta and Pulaski these meetings were broken up by the military. The Legislature was to meet in extra session yesterday, and strong efforts will be made with the hope of success to have the calling of a convention for the purpose of effecting the return of the State to the Union. Governor Brown is believed to be fully in accord with the move in this project.

The small pox has broken out and was very bad among the negroes in and about Savannah. On Friday Gen. Sherman's forces, with a small force from Folly Island, crossed over to James Island, captured some rifle pits and took a considerable number of prisoners, after a brief skirmish.

The Richmond Examiner says the rebels were never opposed to establishing a colored regiment for a white man, but when the colored regiment happened to be a slave, they will not [illegible] to them whatever.

AFFAIRS IN MEXICO.—A gentleman who left Mexico on the 6th of last month, and for whose veracity we can vouch, says matters in the interior of the country were in a most unsettled condition. On the contrary, the various warring factions were strengthening their fortifications and making preparations for the defensive, but for the present, with the exception of New York, no active operations are designed by any of the contending parties. The speech to the people at the residence of Maximilian, La Verti, on Canalejo street, in which he announced that the capital would be defended to the last extremity, was successfully delivered. The force assembled for that purpose is much greater, we understand, than was at first supposed. Gen. Bazaine, who is in command, is [illegible] and has the confidence of the army. Gen. Douay, who is also in command, is [illegible] and has the confidence of the army.
