NEW ORLEANS, TUESDAY MORNING, JULY 4, 1916.

On our second page, will be found short and section sales, and other notices and advertisements.

In observance of the National holiday we have suspended the publication of this issue for the week ending on Monday morning.

We are obliged to Mr. G. W. Williams, chief of the Louisiana Grey Staff, for the valuable and interesting paper.

Two Men on the Accidents—Remember the grand medals best at home, for the other young people as well. A great list is offered also for the occasion.

Mr. G. Roman—Among the appointments made by the Governor we observe the name of Mr. Roman who was, in a long and happy period of the late Governor Governor of Louisiana. It is to be expected one of the two State representatives in the direction of the Citizens' Bank in the city of New Orleans, and a man of high ability who was one of the founders. All who are interested in the establishment and the management of this bank in the city of New Orleans must welcome the accession to the management of the bank at this time of a man distinguished for his capacity and experience, and of an unimpeachable integrity.

The Celebration to Day—The program for the day is and will be a most interesting one. The celebration of the American Independence is celebrated in the city of New Orleans, and the people are expected to take part in it with a great deal of interest.
