

NEW ORLEANS, FRIDAY MORNING, AUG. 26, 1865.

On our second page will be found a special notice, and a list of names and various other miscellaneous advertisements.

Negro Testimony in Alabama.

We referred last week to the testimony given by the negroes in Alabama, and to the proceedings of the Freedmen's Bureau in that State. The testimony given by the negroes in Alabama, and to the proceedings of the Freedmen's Bureau in that State. The testimony given by the negroes in Alabama, and to the proceedings of the Freedmen's Bureau in that State.

The Southern Plan.

We are pleased to learn from Mr. Edwin L. Jewell in person that satisfactory progress is being made in the preparation of his new paper, the Daily Southern Star, at the time designated, the first of September. As we have heretofore indicated, Mr. Jewell expects, on a basis of democratic principles, and along with the standard of the true interest of Louisiana, to appear at the Administration. Andrew Johnson and discreditingly comment the measure of the State and City Government inaugurated by Gov. Wells and John Kennedy.

The London Times on President Johnson's Policy.

From the London Times, July 25. It is said to be the credit of President Johnson that in spite of the insistent clamor of the North he has maintained his course of policy, and that he has not been swayed by the cries of "union at all costs" which have so often been raised against him. It is also said that the London Times is much pleased with the course of policy which he has pursued, and that it is much pleased with the course of policy which he has pursued.

City Intelligence.

The police department has just received from the Sheriff of the State a list of names of persons who have been arrested in the State, and who are now in the custody of the State Prison. The list contains the names of several hundred persons, and is much longer than has been usual in previous years.

THE WEEKLY NEWS BEE.

The Weekly News Bee is published every Friday morning, and contains a full and complete account of the news of the day. It is published at the office of the Bee, 73 Chartres street.

MONETARY AND FINANCIAL.

The market for gold and silver is quiet, and prices are firm. The price of gold is at 140, and silver at 120. The market for stocks is also quiet, and prices are firm.

COMMERCIAL.

The market for cotton is quiet, and prices are firm. The price of cotton is at 15, and the price of sugar is at 10. The market for other commodities is also quiet, and prices are firm.

INSURANCE.

The market for insurance is quiet, and prices are firm. The price of fire insurance is at 10, and the price of marine insurance is at 5. The market for other kinds of insurance is also quiet, and prices are firm.

LEGAL.

The market for legal services is quiet, and prices are firm. The price of legal services is at 10, and the price of other legal services is at 5. The market for other kinds of legal services is also quiet, and prices are firm.

DEMOCRATIC STATE CONVENTION.

The Democratic State Convention will be held in New Orleans on the 28th of August. It will be held in the Grand Opera House, and will be presided over by Mr. Edwin L. Jewell. The convention will discuss the platform for the coming year, and will elect delegates to the National Convention.

BY TELEGRAPH

BY TELEGRAPH.

On the West-Indian Sea. (No. 100-1000.)

New York, August 26.—Gov. Furman of Alabama, telegraphed to President Johnson to suspend all military power in the State of Alabama, and to allow the people to elect a State Convention. The Governor also telegraphed to the President to allow the people to elect a State Convention.

RAILROAD NEWS.

The Central Railroad of Alabama has received authority from the State Government to suspend all military power in the State of Alabama, and to allow the people to elect a State Convention.

SALE OF LANDS.

The State Government has received authority from the President to sell the lands of the State of Alabama, and to allow the people to elect a State Convention.

NATIONAL CONSERVATIVE DEMOCRATIC PARTY.

The National Conservative Democratic Party has received authority from the President to suspend all military power in the State of Alabama, and to allow the people to elect a State Convention.

THE SOUTHERN PLAN.

We are pleased to learn from Mr. Edwin L. Jewell in person that satisfactory progress is being made in the preparation of his new paper, the Daily Southern Star, at the time designated, the first of September. As we have heretofore indicated, Mr. Jewell expects, on a basis of democratic principles, and along with the standard of the true interest of Louisiana, to appear at the Administration. Andrew Johnson and discreditingly comment the measure of the State and City Government inaugurated by Gov. Wells and John Kennedy.

THE LONDON TIMES ON PRESIDENT JOHNSON'S POLICY.

From the London Times, July 25. It is said to be the credit of President Johnson that in spite of the insistent clamor of the North he has maintained his course of policy, and that he has not been swayed by the cries of "union at all costs" which have so often been raised against him. It is also said that the London Times is much pleased with the course of policy which he has pursued, and that it is much pleased with the course of policy which he has pursued.

CITY INTELLIGENCE.

The police department has just received from the Sheriff of the State a list of names of persons who have been arrested in the State, and who are now in the custody of the State Prison. The list contains the names of several hundred persons, and is much longer than has been usual in previous years.

MONETARY AND FINANCIAL.

The market for gold and silver is quiet, and prices are firm. The price of gold is at 140, and silver at 120. The market for stocks is also quiet, and prices are firm.

COMMERCIAL.

The market for cotton is quiet, and prices are firm. The price of cotton is at 15, and the price of sugar is at 10. The market for other commodities is also quiet, and prices are firm.

INSURANCE.

The market for insurance is quiet, and prices are firm. The price of fire insurance is at 10, and the price of marine insurance is at 5. The market for other kinds of insurance is also quiet, and prices are firm.

LEGAL.

The market for legal services is quiet, and prices are firm. The price of legal services is at 10, and the price of other legal services is at 5. The market for other kinds of legal services is also quiet, and prices are firm.

DEMOCRATIC STATE CONVENTION.

The Democratic State Convention will be held in New Orleans on the 28th of August. It will be held in the Grand Opera House, and will be presided over by Mr. Edwin L. Jewell. The convention will discuss the platform for the coming year, and will elect delegates to the National Convention.

THE WEEKLY NEWS BEE.

The Weekly News Bee is published every Friday morning, and contains a full and complete account of the news of the day. It is published at the office of the Bee, 73 Chartres street.

Subscription Rates: One copy, 10 cents; Three copies, 25 cents; Six copies, 50 cents; Twelve copies, 1 dollar; Twenty-four copies, 2 dollars; Six months, 5 dollars; One year, 10 dollars.

Advertisements: Five lines, one week, 50 cents; Ten lines, one week, 1 dollar; Twenty lines, one week, 1 dollar 50 cents; Fifty lines, one week, 3 dollars; One hundred lines, one week, 5 dollars.

Office: 73 Chartres street.