Fin ther Articles of the Constitution.

The Convention met at 11 A 4k. President Talisferro in the chair, and 73 members present. Blackbarn, of Claiborne, proposed an ordinance to make the warrants of the Convention bear 8 per cent, interest.

Cooley, of Point Conpée, proposed a substitute, requiring all taxes collected to be paid into the Tressury in the identical funds collected.

Both propositions were referred to a committee composed of the movers thereof, and the President of the Convention, with instructions to report Theseday morning.
