CITY INTELLIGENCE.

Talk about cabinet changes is made rife in Washington. The President, it is said, will immediately nomine as the thing was "Snake Show."

Washington The President, it is said, will immediately nomine as the probability of other changes is errengthened by an impired article published in the Intelligencer.

It is said the Radicals will abandon the investigation into Jutge Field's alleged declarations on the reconstruction laws, because it is understood that Chase has also been talking rather impidently, and they cannot punish one without noticing the other.
