MHERIDAN'S LAST. We publish to day mother letter from General Sheridan. Our readers will find this singular document to extend and there is no reason to doubt that it is no true copy of the original to General Grant things here which we do not care to pass in disease, since great injustice is done, not only to this paper, but we believe to other papers in this city. At the class of this letter will be found a content of the metery concerning

General U. S. Orant, Secretary of War ad interim.

EXECUTIVE MANNETON, J. C., Aug. 17, 1867.

Major General George H. Thomas is hereby sassigned to the command of the Fifth Military District, created by the act of Congress, pushed on the 2d day of March, 1867.

Major General P. H. Sheridan is hereby assigned to the command of the Department of the Missouri.

Major General Winfield S. Hancock is hereby assigned to the command of the Department of the Missouri.

The Secretary of War ad interior will give the necessary instructions to carry this order into effect.

He has repeatedly entered his protest against heing assigned to either of the five mitiary Dis-tricts, and especially to being assigned to relieve General Sheridau.

General Sheridau.

General Sheridau.

General Hancock ought not be removed from where he is. His department is a completed one, which will take a new commander some time to become acquainted with. There are mitiatry reasons, pecuniary reasons, and above all, patriotic reasons, why this order should not be insisted on.

I bog to refer to a letter marked "private,"
