It has been asserted that "high crimes and misdemeanors" referred to in the Constitution of the United States, art. II, see. 2, are, in the absence of a definition by law, such offences as the House of Representatives may choose to consider and designate as "high crimes and misdemeanors. The provision of the Constitution upon which the impeachment is based reads thus:

See 4 The President, Vice President and all civil officers of the United States, aball be removed from office on impeachment for, and convictions of, treason, bribery, or other high crimes and misdemeanors.

Judge Curtis, in his speech before the Senate, in the defones of the President, takes up this question and establishes beyond dispute the three can be defined the President may be impeached must be high the President may be impeached must be high the president may be impeached must be high the priminal offences against the United States, and against some law of the United States, and against some law of the United States, existing when the acts complained of were committed.

Judge Curtis insite there can be no crime, no misdemean re without a law of some kind, writy to or new written, expressed or implied.

The managers are introducing documentary evidence. Blodgett's indictment was offered. Butler offered Blodgett's answer. Evarts objected that Blodgett was not on trial here.

Butler proceeded to state orally what he intended to prove. Chase ordered it reduced to writing. Butler protested, but Chase insisted, and Butler is now writing.

Late Democratic Victories,

The charter elections were held in the several cities in Hudson county yesterday, and were conducted with a great deal of spirit, and a larger voic was cast than on any previous or caston. In some localities there was march excitement and wranging, especially in the Fifth. Sixib, and Seventh Wards of Jersey City, where there was quite a number of disturbance, but nothing of a serious nature resulted. The election this year was conducted under the dold system, with the exception of the Liquor law, the Replanty and Samuet law having been repealed by the Legislature a few days ago of the following is the voice cast yearday, as compared with our year ago:
