NEW ORLEANS:

THURSDAY MORNING, MAY 21, 1868

THE "RECUSANT" SENATORS.

It was remarked with great propriety several years ago, in a public address by a distinguished orator and divine of this city, that "the statesmanship of the country was in retirement." The statement is as correct and appropriate now as it was then. We have been retrograding every day since the tenth was uttered instead of improving, and it is reasonable to expect that the decency, the respectability and the character of the country will shortly seek "retirement" also. Unless some change takes place very soon, all the high places of the land will be occupied by men selected for their want of character rather than for their possession of those qualities which command public esteem and which fit them for the discharge of the duties attached to eminent public station. Such men already wield great influence everywhere, and by their intemperance and indecency of language and conduct are gradually driving respectable public characters into private life. The abuse which has been so freely cast upon those members of the Senate who, obeying the voice of conscience rather than the prejudice and party dictation, have declared for the innocence of Mr. Johnson, can have no other effect than to induce them to escape from the association of their calumniators. It is for that reason we hear of the ostracism from the Republican party of Senators Fessenden, Grimes, Henderson and others who are no longer thought worthy of the respect of the party since they dared to be independent and to act in defiance of party dictation. The natural consequences of this ostracism is the formation of a new party of which there are already rumors but whose existence we are yet inclined to doubt. It is more probable these "recusant" Senators will retire from public life altogether and shake themselves free from the slavish bonds with which their associates seek to surround them. Character, however, will not always remain in seclusion. Like gold, it is the genuine metal, and will keep. When we are thoroughly satiated with the worthless counterfeits which now flood the market, like gold it will again come forth and resume the away to which it is entitled by its value and most necessarily exercise. Just now the country is passing through a night of delirium and will wake to the realities of its situation when that delirium has run its course. Then those men will be recalled and re-invested with the highest honors a nation can bestow.

The meeting of subscribers to the Opera for the next season, which was to have been held last evening, was postponed till Saturday, 23d instant, at 7½ o'clock P. M., at the Opera House. The members of the Committee appointed at the last meeting to draft regulations, etc., are requested to assemble at the Opera House on Friday, 22d instant, at 7½ P. M.

We call the attention of the public to the advertisement in another column of Mr. Julius Loeffler, gas fitter and dealer in gas fixtures, gas pipes, etc, No. 125 Chartres street.

Thanks to the purser of steamship Rappahannock, Capt. Olsen, from Havana, for late papers from that port.

The Crescent of Tuesday made an incautious statement respecting Mademoiselle Fanchetti, (now Madame Faye) of the Opera Troupe, which our contemporary will doubtless recall. We announced by authority last Sunday, the the fact of her marriage with Mr. Faye on the 16th inst., before Paul W. Collens, Justice of the Peace.

THE NORTHERN PRESS ON IMPEACHMENT.—We again yield a large part of our space to extracts from the Conservative Republican press of the North on the subject of the impeachment.

MR EVARTS PREDICTS ACQUITTAL ON ALL THE ARTICLES.—The Washington correspondent of the Chicago Times, writing on the 17th, says Mr. Evarts left for New York on the previous day, after an extended interview with the President, in which he predicted that Mr. Johnson would be acquitted on all the remaining articles by a much larger vote than the eleventh article received.

WITHDRAWAL OF GEN GRANT.—The Washington correspondent of the Chicago Times writing on the 16th, says he has been positively assured that Gen. Grant has withdrawn his name as a candidate for the Radical nomination for the Presidency.

The New York World on the Impeachment.

From the beginning the World has predicted the failure of "impeachment." Its issue of last Saturday, previous to the vote on the Eleventh Article, contained an accurate list of the Senators voting on that Article, with the names of those who voted both "for" and "against" the President. It also contains a statement of the probable vote on the other Articles, which is as follows:

	Guilty.	Not Guilty.
Article	1, 28	25
"	II, 34	19
"	III, 34	19
"	IV, V, VI, VII, 13	40
"	VIII, 34	19
"	IX, 13	40
"	X, 17	36

The World's accuracy as to the vote on the Eleventh Article, justifies our reliance on its further prophesies as to the vote on the other articles

The steamship Trade Wind, Capt. Morrell, sailed, last evening, for Belize, Honi with a good freight and the following passengers:

Gov J McRae, Miss McRae, F Huffman and family, Chas Krut and family, N O Vineyard and family, J J Baker, wife and child, Wm Girard and wife, W m A Wm Nash and wife, Rev W C Stout, Wm M Burns.

WOULDN'T NAME THEM.—The following is the text of the President's message, transmitting to Congress the so called constitutions of North Carolina and Louisiana. It will be seen that his Excellency studiously refrains from calling the papers "constitutions":

To the Senate and House of Representatives:

I transmit to Congress the accompanying documents, which embrace all the papers that have been submitted to me relating to the proceedings to which they refer, in the States of North Carolina and Louisiana.

ANDREW JOHNSON.

Louisiana Items.

"Have the caterpillars made their appearance among your cotton?" is the anxious query made by many planters at this season of the year. We are assured that such has been the case on several plantations in the western part of the parish. As to the probable or positive injury, should those reports be true, is a matter of speculation. Some, if they are well as cred that it is the veritable army worm, have determined to plow up their cotton and put corn in its stead. Others again, say that there is no danger. The burning heat of summer will destroy the germs of the caterpillar, and they can no more send matare for mischief All, however, agree that it is fortunate for the planters they have made their appearance at this early day. We have had heavy rains, with quite cold nights and mornings. Crops of every description are healthy and promising.—East Feliciana Democrat, 16th.

After a much needed rain, which fell on Monday and Tuesday, the weather at writing is delightful and our crops looking well, generally speaking. In some parts of the parish the locusts and worms are doing a deal of harm, more especially in the kitchen garden. We have seen some, which two weeks ago looked promising, with scarcely anything left to them, potato tops disappear first, followed by beans, etc., which in a few days are leafless, nothing remaining but the stalk.

We are sorry to see that several places are already partly under water, with a rise of two inches daily in the back water. The woods ought added to the road are fast filling up Magnon and lakes nearly all full, with discouraging news from above. It is feared we shall be again overflowed, and as a season will be lost the time the water runs off, it will be impossible to make anything.

Our little town is improving. Two new stores have just been finished. If overflowed again this year, we cannot see where their support will come from.

We regret to have to record the demise of Mr. Yelverton Cammack, and old respected citizen of this parish. He was a native of Carolina county, Virginia, but a resident of this State for many years, having arrived to the age of 73.—Texas Gazette, 16th.

SPECIE PAYMENTS.—The New York Post, discussing the ways and means of returning to a specie payment site, says:

It has long been certain that our currency cannot be gradually brought to a specie value by a mere process of continuous contraction. The policy has been carried far enough by Mr. McCulloch to reveal its worthlessness, and any further prosecution of it would only cause revulsion in public confidence, and ruinous financial taxation in all the markets, without contributing anything to the solution of the real difficulties of the case. An essential preliminary step to further contraction is the modification of the most odious species of paper now afloat—the legal tender act so that gold and silver can again be used as money among persons who desire it. The people will then have another currency to take the place of greenbacks, and can afford to take the place of greenbacks, and can afford to fund these as fast as they please.

Forty two tradesmen were recently fined for using unjust weights, scales and measures at Nexington, England.

CITY INTELLIGENCE.

Hebrew Educational Society—Laying of a Corner Stone.—We had the pleasure, yesterday, of being present at the ceremony of laying the corner stone of the school edifice in progress of construction on Caillope street, by the Hebrew Educational Society of New Orleans. The day was propitious, the assembly large and intelligent, and the ceremonies impressive.

The Hebrew Educational Society was organized in October, 1856, and numbers some 250 members. The first school, for which the present building is being erected, was organized some fifteen months ago, and numbers 125 pupils under the charge of Mr. W. J. Meade. The building, when finished, will be 55 by 85 feet, and will cost $30,000.

The following is a list of the officers of the Society: President, Rev. H. S. Jacobs; First Vice President, S. Kahn; Second Vice President, Joseph Simon; Treasurer, A. Beer; Secretary, Joseph Kohn. Directors: S. Marx, J. Oplatek, Leon Kahn, Benj Moses, F. A. Haber, Wm. Bird, B. Levy, L. H. Joseph, G. G. Wolf and Joseph Cohn.

Messrs. Reid & Harrod were the architects, and D. J. Wasson the builder.

The ceremonies commenced with music by Jaeger's celebrated band, and were followed by an address by the President, in which he briefly recounted the history of the Society since its organization, and stated its present condition and prospects

Prayer by the Rev. B. E. Jacobs followed.

The Constitution and By-Laws of the following organizations:

Hebrew Educational Society; Congregation the dispersed of Judah; Congregation Taalim Derash; Congregation Gates of Prayer; Association of Relief Jewish Widows and Orphans; Gentlemen's Hebrew Benevolent Association; Charter Lodge No. 77, Hebrew Foreign Mission; Deutsche Company; First Annual Report of the H. E. Society; Thirteenth Annual Report of the Association for the Relief of Jewish Widows and Orphans; Constitution Ladies' Hebrew Benevolent Association, Fourth District, and a collection of 35 coins, ancient and modern, were deposited therein by Mr. Da Silva, containing, among others, the following:

A Roman coin of the reign of Constantinus; do. do. Hadrianus Augustus; do. Claudius Cesar; do. Trajan. A collonial cent of Louisiana of 1721. Collonial cents of various States, and a copy of the first edition of the Daily Orifice, published at Vicksburg before its surrender by the Confederates, and which is printed on common wall paper. Also, a list of the officers of the City Press present.

After depositing these articles, the ceremony of laying the stone was performed by Messrs. Levi Hendricks, A. Labati and Gustave Marks.

An eloquent oration by Rev. J. K. Gutheim, of which we regret we cannot speak at length, as its merits richly deserve, and a benediction by the President closed the ceremonies, the intervals being enlivened by enchanting music by the band.

Dr. Gutheim spoke in encouraging terms of the progress and good works of the Society, which now he said not only has a name, but a local habitation.

Oliver Conclave, S. W. M.—An installation of Oliver Conclave No. 6, of the order of Sweet Water Men, took place last night at their Hall, No 67 Josephine street. The proceedings were very interesting, but the lateness of the hour at which they terminated prevents a full and correct report till to-morrow. In the meantime, we take pleasure in acknowledging the compliment of a serenade to our office from the Astra. An report was Watermen Associate of the Order.

The Concert at the Varieties—There was a fine audience at the Varieties Theatre last night, on the occasion of the complimentary benefit given by acclamation to the director of the troupe, La Hache, to Rev. J. C. Carpentier. The tableaux of the Paris Exhibition, and the Scriptural scenes and astronomical demonstrations, by Prof. Wilson, were, as usual, beautiful and highly instructive.

The Board of Police Commissioners—The Board met in regular session last night, and the following officers were dismissed from the force:

Officer J. Kearney, of the Third District, for insulting ladies.

Officer J. Duvignaud, of the Second District, for leaving his post during a fire and using insulting language to his superior officer.

Officer M. McLinor, of the Second District, under several charges of drunkenness and neglect of duty.

Officer McFall, of the Fourth District, for numerous absences without leave, and habitual drunkenness.

Officer J. Kurtz, of the Fourth District, for drunkenness and absence without leave.

Payer S. Joy Dunnage—E. B. Tinney, Justice of the Peace of the Parish of St Charles, has brought suit in the Sixth District Court, claiming $10,000 damages of the proprietors of the Commercial Bulletin newspaper of this city, in consequence of an item of local intelligence in reference to him, published in the issue of that paper of the 4th inst., relating to a charge against him of assault with intent to kill Wm. T Bartlett (of this city), while in the Parish of St. Charles. The case is pending before the U. S. District Court, before which Mr. E. M Ivens, his security for his appearance, surrendered him.

Thieves Dumps—The house occupied by Mr. Dominick Nolan, No. 247 Burgundy street was burglariously entered yesterday morning, by means of false keys, it is supposed, and robbed of $110 in gold, three gold watches and a gold chain.

Some fifteen pairs of pants, and other articles of about same value, belonging to R Gaillard, were also stolen yesterday morning early from a room, No. 8 Rampart street. Three negroes, Albert Pascal, Charles Johnson and John Davis, were arrested on suspicion of being the thieves, and a man named Louis Haynes was arrested on a charge of having bought the articles and knowing they were stolen. Haynes gave bond to appear at the Criminal Court.

Boy Drowned—The Coroner held an inquest yesterday on the body of Wm Logan, a boy 12 years old, who fell into the batture opposite Race street, and was drowned. Verdict, accidentally drowned.

Charleston, May 20—The Convention of Charleston have nominated for Mayor Colonel Wm H Patten, an ex-officer of the U S A, who served gallantly during the war, and who is now a prominent Democrat. His opponent is G Pilsbury, an ex Bureau Agent, who will be supported by the negro Union League and the aristocratic element.

Portland, Maine, May 20—A northeast storm is prevailing.
