Death or Alex. C. Bullitt.

One by one our old citizens are passing away. Journalism is this city enateined some months ago an irreparable loss in the death of one who reflected honor upon the profession, and now we are called upon to record the death of his former partner, who was not less identified with our calling and who lant it equal dignity. The telegraph announces the death of Mr. Bullitt, at Lenweille, Ky, on Startrday last. The particulars of his decease have not been received. Mr. Bullitt became a citizen of New Orlessa about the year 1833, and commenced his constitution of the commenced his constitution. and his pointed articles at once attracted intention of the public. Mr. Buillit sup-Bir. Clay, who was at that time a can for the Presidency, with all the volvalry nature. In 1844 he nold his interess BER to Mesers.
