Third Annual State Fair. March 29-April 14, 1869.

The day yesterday was bright, but very chilly for this season of the year.

Among the notable features remaining on the grounds is a superbly fine collection of plants.

The second exhibition was a violation of the laws of the State.

It is a pity that the fair should be so short.

Among the exhibits were a fine collection of plants.

The fair was a success in every respect.

Social Recognition.
