

OFFICE 73 CHARTRES STREET. Louisiana State Fair. Fourth Day, Tuesday, April 26, 1870.

The weather was again unpropitious yesterday, culminating in a violent rain in the afternoon, which, however, did not prevent the exhibition from being held. It is a very good attendance during the exhibition, and the prospect is not a few of the fair, after the night, on the exhibition in the arena, and consequent awards, considerable attention was attracted to the race standing, to the fact that several horses of equal merit had been entered, and had been best for a five to ten race to the first horse, $50 to the second.

Among these articles which have excited the attention of the public, are the following:—A copy of the report of the Board of Directors for the year ending on the 31st of December last, which is a very interesting and valuable document, and one which should be read by every citizen of the State. It contains a full and complete statement of the affairs of the corporation, and shows the progress of the same during the year.
