OFFICE 78 CHARTRES STREET. THE CASE OF MRS. GAINES. Mr. Justice Bradley, of the Supreme Court of the United States, sitting in the District of Louisiana, delivered yesterday the following judgment, in favor of Mrs. Gaines, for the purpose of carrying into execution the decree of the Supreme Court of the United States, rendered more than a year ago, in the case of Mrs. Gaines against the city of New Orleans.

As we understand it, every point of law rolled upon by Mrs. Gaines has been indicated in her favor, and the entering up of the decree will facilitate the enforcement of her claims without further delay.

Mrs. Clark Gains, of the City of New Orleans, claims a certain tract of land, which she claims to be the same as that which was conveyed to her by her husband, Daniel Clark, who died in 1812.

The plaintiff claims that the tract of land in question is the same as that which was conveyed to her by her husband, Daniel Clark, who died in 1812.

The defendant claims that the tract of land in question is the same as that which was conveyed to her by her husband, Daniel Clark, who died in 1812.

The court has decided in favor of Mrs. Gaines, and the decree will be entered up accordingly.
