CITY INTELLIGENCE

The Mayor's Office has been notified that the late Mayor's will has been admitted to probate in the District Court. The will is dated the 10th of March, 1869, and contains several bequests to various charities and individuals. The executor named in the will is the late Mayor's son, who is now residing in New Orleans. The will is being administered by the District Court, and the assets of the estate are being inventoried and distributed according to the terms of the will.

The Board of Public Health has issued a new ordinance regarding the sale of foodstuffs. The ordinance requires that all foodstuffs sold in the city must be fresh and of good quality. It also requires that all vendors must have a license from the Board of Health before they can sell their goods. The ordinance is intended to protect the health of the citizens and to prevent the sale of spoiled or adulterated food.

The City Council has held a meeting on Monday evening, and discussed several important matters. One of the main items of business was the proposed new ordinance regarding the sale of foodstuffs. The council members discussed the ordinance in detail and made several amendments. They also discussed the proposed new ordinance regarding the sale of liquor. The council will hold another meeting on Wednesday evening to continue the discussion of these matters.

The City Council has also discussed the proposed new ordinance regarding the sale of liquor. The ordinance requires that all liquor sold in the city must be sold in the original wrapper and must be sealed with a cork and a wax cap. The ordinance also requires that all vendors must have a license from the City Council before they can sell liquor. The council members discussed the ordinance in detail and made several amendments. They will hold another meeting on Wednesday evening to continue the discussion of these matters.
