

THE FRANCO-PRUSSIAN WAR. Bismarck Ask Explanations from Belgium. The Situation at Strasburg Growing Desperate. Red Republicans Dangerous to the Safety of Paris. Prussian Advance Guard Defeated Near Mulhouse. Heavy Fighting at Ris. Prussian Siege Guns Still in the Mud. Arrest of Many Old Citizen Police. Material Used in Bombarding Strasburg. Numbers of Suspicious Uhlans Arrested. Condition of the French Blockading Fleet. Approach of the Italian Troops to Rome. The Crown Prince Addresses the German People.

HOME NEWS. Miscellaneous. FOREIGN INTELLIGENCE. DOMESTIC MARKETS. THE SUNDAY SCHOOL. THE SUNDAY SCHOOL. THE SUNDAY SCHOOL.

City Intelligence. Volition of International Law. Monetary and Financial. To Democratic Voters. Citizens of Foreign Birth. FOR CONGRESS. For the Benefit of the French and German Wounded Soldiers! ALEXANDER J. BARNETT.

THE FRANCO-PRUSSIAN WAR. (Continued) A more hopeful feeling prevails in Paris today from the announcement that Lord Lyons has been ordered to leave the city. The French government has decided to evacuate Paris, and the Prussian army is expected to enter the city in a few days. The situation in Strasburg is growing desperate, and the French army is being defeated near Mulhouse. Heavy fighting is taking place at Ris, and the Prussian advance guard has been defeated near Mulhouse.

HOME NEWS (Continued) The Southern Commercial Convention at New Orleans. The Convention opened on Saturday night and will continue until Monday. The delegates are from various parts of the South, and the main object is to discuss the political and commercial interests of the region. The Convention is expected to be a success, and will result in a strong declaration of the Southern States.

FRANCO-PRUSSIAN WAR (Continued) The French government has decided to evacuate Paris, and the Prussian army is expected to enter the city in a few days. The situation in Strasburg is growing desperate, and the French army is being defeated near Mulhouse. Heavy fighting is taking place at Ris, and the Prussian advance guard has been defeated near Mulhouse.

FRANCO-PRUSSIAN WAR (Continued) The French government has decided to evacuate Paris, and the Prussian army is expected to enter the city in a few days.

COMMERCIAL. OFFICE OF THE REEF. SATURDAY EVENING, SEPT. 17. The market for coffee is quiet, with a slight advance in price. The market for sugar is also quiet, with a slight decline in price. The market for cotton is active, with a slight advance in price. The market for wool is quiet, with a slight decline in price. The market for various other commodities is also quiet.

COMMERCIAL (Continued) The market for various other commodities is also quiet. The market for gold and silver is active, with a slight advance in price. The market for bonds is quiet, with a slight decline in price. The market for stocks is also quiet, with a slight decline in price. The market for various other commodities is also quiet.

COMMERCIAL (Continued) The market for various other commodities is also quiet.

NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC. The undersigned has this day received from the Secretary of the Treasury, a copy of the act of Congress, approved March 3, 1870, relating to the duties on foreign-made liquors. The act provides that the duties on such liquors shall be increased to ten percent ad valorem. The undersigned is authorized to collect the duties on such liquors, and to issue licenses for the importation of such liquors. The undersigned is also authorized to issue licenses for the sale of such liquors.

NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC (Continued) The undersigned is authorized to collect the duties on such liquors, and to issue licenses for the importation of such liquors. The undersigned is also authorized to issue licenses for the sale of such liquors. The undersigned is also authorized to issue licenses for the sale of such liquors.

NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC (Continued) The undersigned is authorized to collect the duties on such liquors, and to issue licenses for the importation of such liquors.

STEAMSHIPS. For New York. The steamer 'Albatross' will sail for New York on Monday morning, September 19, at 10 o'clock. The steamer 'Albatross' is a fast and comfortable vessel, and will arrive in New York on Wednesday morning, September 21, at 10 o'clock. The steamer 'Albatross' is owned by the New Orleans and New York Steamship Company.

STEAMSHIPS (Continued) The steamer 'Albatross' will sail for New York on Monday morning, September 19, at 10 o'clock. The steamer 'Albatross' is a fast and comfortable vessel, and will arrive in New York on Wednesday morning, September 21, at 10 o'clock. The steamer 'Albatross' is owned by the New Orleans and New York Steamship Company.

STEAMSHIPS (Continued) The steamer 'Albatross' will sail for New York on Monday morning, September 19, at 10 o'clock.