NEW ORLRANS DAILY BER DUFOUR & LIMST, PUBLISHEDS,

No. 73.Chartree street

It is not enough to say, in answer to the complaint that these sheds obstruct commerce on the levee, that they only cover the space formerly devoted to the ungar and molasses trade—that the same space is still appropriated to the trade—that the only difference is there are now covering for the goods where formerly they were exposed to the weather—and therefore they do not impair the free use of the public places. The objection to the sheds is that the space hitherto set apart for the use of the public, and which should be free to all the world, is not free, but is controlled and monepolised by a private corporation for their own advantage—that public landing places, batture property belonging to the corporation of New Orleans, is occupied by this private corporation, who claim under their charter the right of shutting out the public from the ground upon which the said corporation that the
