St. Charles Theatre.-Mr. Emmet ST. CHARLES INFATURE.—MI. LUMBERS Ad a large and appreciative sudience, at is benefit last night, and "Fritz" went off rith felat. The character is rendered rety attractive by Mr. Emmett's talent and bit with colat. The character is rendered very attractive by Mr. Emmett's talent for minicry, his pleasant singing and his happy, faculty of portraying faithfully the tender and pathetic scenes that occur in the play, which owes much of its popularity to the agreeable aspect of "Fritz's" demestic life. He is on the bills for tonight again.
