The End of the Radical Conventions.

The Convention of the Radical Party, which has been in session at the Convention Hotel, has at last come to a close. The delegates have adopted a platform which is in many respects a departure from the course pursued by the party in the past. The platform is a moderate one, and it is believed that it will secure the support of the majority of the people of Louisiana. The delegates have also elected a committee to prepare a report on the proceedings of the convention. The report will be published in the near future. The convention has been a success, and it is believed that the party will be able to carry out its platform in the coming year.
