BELIEVES IN HEREDITY.

He has a Lusty Son Who is a Living Proof of It Every Day.

"Do I believe in heredity?" said a well-known local professional man...

"You see, I like to get out in the yard with the rake and the spade and the lawn mower..."

"I only hope that my boy will have a boy of his own some day who will serve him the very same way..."

A NAME WANTED. Australia is trying to find a Suitable One for Her New Capital.

BEAUTIFUL WEDDING GIFT.

Fit for a Princess It Was Given to a Girl Who Worked in a Mill.

A girl who for nine years has worked in a certain Norristown mill was recently married...

The gathering of it is a task, and it is romantic to think of the three over-seers, corpulent and gray, scurrying in the young girl's honor over the green fields...

A Strangely Fateful Desk in a Kansas School That Has Been Abandoned.

There is a desk in the Stanley school in Argentine that is no longer occupied, because it is marked by ill fate...

Miss Selby, teacher of the room in which the desk stands, is not superstitious, but she will scarcely be blamed for her reluctance to assign that particular place of furniture...

JAPANESE PAWNBROKERS. Laborers Can Buy Their Daily Bath and Breakfast, But Not Dinner.

Pawnbrokers in Japan are not allowed to charge more than 100 per cent upon their advances...

STONE HOTELS.

They Are Said to Burn Offener Than Those Built Entirely of Wood.

Considering how many huge hotels, constructed entirely of wood, and often in a more or less flimsy manner...

POMP OF POWER.

Great Ceremony Attends the Nightly Locking of Gibraltar's Gates.

Perhaps the favorite sight of Gibraltar is the daily procession at sundown for the locking of the town gates.

On arriving at the gates the guard salutes, the martial strains strike up with a redoubled pean of triumph...

Once the gates are shut it were easier for a camel to pass through the eye of a needle than for any unauthorized person to go into Gibraltar.

"TEDDY" IS A SAD BIRD NOW. Well Meaning Bald Eagle That Served as Rough Riders' Mascot Has Met Sore Death.

After a well-meaning bald eagle has served as a mascot for the rough riders and vanquished every other inhabitant of his cage since the war...
