BY RUFUS C. BULLITT & MAGNE
A weekly newspaper of politics, news and opinion.

THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES,
HENRY CLAY,
OF KENTUCKY.

SATURDAY EVENING & NATIONAL CONVENTION.

NEW ORLEANS
THURSDAY MORNING JULY 4 1830

BY FREDERICK G. COOPER.—No paper will be issued from the office of the Believer.

NOTICE.—
SIXTH OF JULY.

Some days ago, in the absence of other information, we published in the Advertiser the following statement of facts, which has since been fully corroborated by the New Orleans Journal:—

On the 2d ult., Mr. Davis, of New Orleans, was engaged in a duel with his son-in-law, Mr. Leigh, who was severely wounded in the new affair. It is now known that Mr. Davis' party participated in the duel, and that he was present at the scene of the combat.

The Advertiser intimated that public opinion strongly favored Mr. Davis, and was, according to that journal, unanimous throughout the whole state.

But our informant on a reliable source of information says that, up to the present time, no decided advantage has been gained by either side.

As it is well known, such a distinction of facts, as those above mentioned, will be of great interest to the public.

Mr. Leigh, who was severely wounded in the new affair, is reported to be in a dangerous condition.

Mr. Davis, however, has been compelled to leave the city, and is now in a foreign country.

The Advertiser, in its last number, says that Mr. Leigh is still a prisoner in the hands of the authorities.

It is also reported that Mr. Leigh has been released.
